

9-2608a

The Honorable Charles C. Diggs, Jr.
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Diggs:

Thank you for your letter of 17 April 1957 concerning Mr. [redacted]

Mr. [redacted] did apply for a position with us in 1954 but his record was placed in an inactive status last year in the absence of an appropriate opening for him. Our Personnel Director is asking Mr. [redacted] to bring his record up to date so that he may be considered against our current requirements. Our present need for clerical personnel without special skills is limited, however.

A copy of our letter to Mr. [redacted] is enclosed for your information. You may be sure he will be given every consideration and we will advise you of the result.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
